Year 4	How are important events remembered? Home Learning Idea Research about Sun gods and festivals. Sun activities e.g. making shadows, noting the movement of the sun. Make your own Sundial – Reflect: how will we use the hours left to us today? What will we feel proud of as the sun goes down and we go to sleep?  Plan your own celebration of 'light' then have one or bring your ideas into school to show your teacher. Here are some ideas... https://childhood101.com/24-day-night-light-themed-learning-activities/	What faiths are shared in our country? Home Learning Idea When you walk in the local area, go on a bus or in the car note all the places of worship you see. What did you see, where did you see them which religion do the places of worship belong today? Create your own map of the places you saw on your journey. Why do Christians Celebrate Christmas? Theme– Light: 'Jesus as the light of the world' Home Learning Idea Make a Christingle and suggest the symbolism attached to it; finding out through research afterwards. 	How do the Five Pillars guide Muslims? Home Learning Idea How many charities can you think of (research these)? Which ones would you donate to if you could? Do you think giving to charity makes society a better place? If you were starting a charity what would it be for? Why are charities so important in Islam?	What Makes Easter Important for Christians? Home Learning Idea Theme– Trust & Loyalty Make an 'I wish I'd never done it book', with fictional & anonymous true stories.	Why are Gurus at the heart of Sikh belief and practice? Home Learning Idea Write a 'recipe' for a good learner e.g. a cup of knowledge, a teaspoon of patience etc. Ideas/examples  A RECIPE FOR LEARNING In a large bowl combine... One cup of CURIOSITY I am a child, I am naturally curious. A dash (or three) of RELEVANCE I learn best when what I am learning is meaningful to my own experiences of the world. A good dose of VARIETY I like to learn in lots of different ways. A pint of INTEREST I am most motivated to learn when I am interested in what I am doing and learning. A sprinkling of PURPOSE I like you to know that I am learning. A little of PROBLEM SOLVING To really get me thinking. A heaped teaspoon of ACTIVE DOING As it is through active experiences with objects, people and places that I acquire knowledge. And a large pinch of PLAYFUL FUN! Stir together with FRIENDS to learn alongside. Sharing ideas and helping to challenge my own learning. Add an INTERESTED ADULT to guide and give challenges that push my thinking further. And bake together with TIME to explore, experience, grow and mature. childhood101.com	Creative exploration of light/dark Here are some fun ideas... https://childhood101.com/24-day-night-light-themed-learning-activities/
