

Reading List

This reading list is simply a starting-point to support parents and children when selecting suitable books to read at home.

You might like to try some of these titles listed or explore different books by the same author.

We hope you will enjoy reading and talking about these books with your child.