

Year 2 home learning - 10.3.23

Hello,

We hope you enjoy the snow today! Here are some activities you can complete at home today.

Maths

We are learning our 2,5- and 10-times tables and we are trying to remember them off by heart. Here are some activities that can help 😊.

Supermovers, the 2, 5 and 10 times table videos!

You can use the website 'Hit the Button' to practise your times tables, number bonds and doubling and halving. <https://www.topmarks.co.uk/maths-games/hit-the-button>.

English

Please read your reading book as we are aiming to read at least three times a week!

You can also use your Reading Eggs or Bug Club logs in which are in your reading record to access reading activities

We would love you to draw a picture and write some sentences about how you spent your snow day. There is a sheet attached at the bottom to give you some ideas. Please bring these in next week to show the rest of the class!

Purple Mash

There are some activities set on your '2do' which you can complete at home.

Can you do some research about Amelia Earhart and make a poster to show what you have found out about her?

Take care and have a great day,
